ANNUAL TOWN MEETING SHAFTSBURY, VERMONT
413 VOTERS - MARCH 5, 2019

6. Shall the voters of the Town of Shaftsbury approve the following amendments to the Shaftsbury Zoning Bylaws:

To allow property owners in all zoning districts except Forest and Recreation to practice a home occupation consisting of offering for “short term rental” a furnished home or other dwelling room or unit to the transient public for a period of fewer than thirty consecutive days and for more than fourteen days per calendar year. Newly constructed short term rentals shall observe a two hundred foot setback from all property lines and other short term rental units. Two structures are allowed per parcel provided other requirements are met. Recreational vehicles shall not be used for short term rentals. “Short term rentals” as a home occupation are to be considered permitted uses requiring site plan approval.

7. Shall the voters of the Town of Shaftsbury approve the following amendments to the Shaftsbury Zoning Bylaws:

Motel to Housing Conversion: To create a “rooming house” lodging option to offer single room rentals, lacking full housekeeping facilities, and not catering to the traveling public. They may be situated only within existing lodging facilities constructed prior to the year 2000 and fronting on Route 7A. If the facility includes ten or more units, an on-site manager must live on the premises. The proposed bylaw requires that a communal kitchen and recreational area be provided. “Rooming houses” are to be considered conditional uses.
